Dear Madam/Sir,

Every entity active in the insurance market is aware of the fact that this year will bring many important changes in the relevant legislation, including new notions, conditions and commitments. Every entity that desires to remain successful in the future in doing what it does best must get familiarised with, and apply, these information. Is your company or its employees prepared for all the changes? The National Bank of Hungary investigates the compliance with the new rules during its audits. In order to avoid any fines, you should be prepared for the changes!

You are cordially invited to the forthcoming event of the
